The Israeli Palestinian Conflict is one of the world's longest running and most controversial conflicts. At its heart is a conflict between two self-determination movements: the Jewish and Palestinian.

After the Destruction of Jerusalem, a Legion X Fretensis was stationed on the site and the rank of the provincial governor was raised from procurator to legatus Augusti, signifying a change from equestrian to senatorial rank. Caesarea Maritima, the governor's residence, became a Roman colony, and as a reward for the loyalty of the Greeks in the

The Bible and Palestine focus on Jerusalem:

Joel 3:1-4: For behold in those days and in that time when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem I will also gather all nations and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel whom they have

The Flora Palaestina was published in 1966. Since then, many alterations have occurred, dozens of new taxa indigenous and adventive have been added to the flora. The ecological distribution of some of the species has been changed, and in several cases, the taxonomic status and the nomenclature have been amended.
