May 24th, 2020 - In the Roman foundation myth it was a she wolf that nursed and sheltered the twins Romulus and Remus after they were abandoned in the wild by order of King Amulius of Alba Longa. She cared for the infants at her den, a cave known as the Lupercal, until they were discovered by a shepherd Faustulus. Romulus would later become the founder and first king of Rome.

Romulus and Remus are most often portrayed together in art and on coins as infants being suckled by the she wolf. They are featured in this manner on the statue of Romulus and Remus in Siena, Italy. Siena was founded according to myth by Remus son of Senius.
