May 19th, 2020 - Clara Reeve 1729 1807 was an English poet and novelist. Reeve was born at Ipswich, the eldest daughter of William Reeve, rector of Freston and of Kerton, Suffolk, and perpetual curate of St Nicholas, Ipswich. Reeve tells us that her father was an old-fashioned Whig and that she learned from him all she knew. He made her read at a very early age the parliamentary debates, Rapin’s History of April 6th, 2020 - Female writers of Gothic were hell raisers in more than one sense. Not only did they specialize in evoking scenes of horror, cruelty, and supernaturalism, but in doing so, they exploded the literary conventions of the day and laid claim to realms of the imagination hitherto reserved for men. They were rewarded with popular success, large profits, and even critical adulation.
