'This book presents groundbreaking research revealing the many women who played a crucial role in the design and creation of Tiffany Studios masterpieces. Clara Driscoll 1861-1944, head of the women's glass cutting department, recently discovered correspondence written during her employment at Tiffany Studios at the turn of the century. The book, released on June 3rd, 2020, is an extremely readable biography of Clara Driscoll, who worked for the Tiffany Studio as director of the women's glass cutting department for 20 years until 1909. Little was known about her until about 10 years ago when her letters to her mother and sisters came to light and it became evident that she designed some of the most famous Tiffany lamps.
