May 5th, 2020 - this book demonstrates that an investigation of the relationship between verse and prose in saga narrative can be used to reconstruct how the sagas were posed. Donoghue provides a detailed analysis of Kormáks saga revealing that far from being a seamless narrative of either pre-Christian oral tradition or later medieval fiction the work is in fact a patchwork of different kinds of

Genesis creation narrative

June 2nd, 2020 - The Genesis creation narrative is the creation myth of both judaism and Christianity. The narrative is made up of two stories roughly equivalent to the first two chapters of the book of Genesis, in the first Elohim the Hebrew generic word for God creates the heavens and the earth in six days then rests on blesses and sanctifies the seventh, i.e., the biblical Sabbath.
