The doctrine of deification in the Greek Patristic tradition was the fulfillment of the destiny for which humanity was created, not merely salvation from sin but entry into the fullness of the divine life of the Trinity. This book, the first on the subject for over sixty years, traces the history of deification from its birth as a second-century metaphor with biblical roots to its maturity as a doctrine.

Understanding the doctrine of deification - Saint Dominic

May 22nd, 2020 - Deification is the honored status rejected by Adam and attained by Christ, the new Adam. Finally, the doctrine of deification enhances the doctrine of the incarnation of the Trinity and the divine economy of the Father in Christ through the Spirit. It reminds us that there is no bypassing the incarnation.

May 26th, 2020 - The teaching of deification or theosis in Eastern Orthodoxy refers to the attainment of likeness of God or reconciliation with God. Deification has three stages in its process of transformation: katharsis (purification), theoria (vision), and theosis (union). Theosis, as such, is the goal - it is the purpose of life and is considered achievable only through a synergy or cooperation between human activities.
