ancient crete ancient history encyclopedia

May 31st, 2020 - the very fact that Crete is an island limited its role in Greek regional affairs during the classical period 600-450 BCE but Cretan towns did provide warriors, Cretan mercenary slingers and archers being especially highly esteemed for such conflicts as the Peloponnesian Wars and the campaigns of Alexander the Great and his successors from the 3rd to 1st century BCE the formation of "The Tragic Dynasties Crete the House of Minos"

May 27th, 2020—Yet the legends of Crete show some grasp of how a culture grows and declines. Minos I is selfless dedicated to producing a great civilization, and his personality is submerged in this effort. Under such a king, a land is likely to prosper. Minos II, however, asserts his personality at the expense of Crete and his own family.
